President's Message

Dear Friends,

What a summer! When I was a teenager and would complain about the rain, my Dad would always say, If it didn't rain you wouldn't appreciate the sunshine. This summer has really made me appreciate the rain. Even after a good summer I look forward to fall. I love the fall foliage and the cooler crisper weather. I love the new crop apples, pumpkins, turnips greens and sorghum molasses. I start thinking about cooking gingerbread, beef stew, chicken pie and molasses cookies. It's my favorite time of the year.

Our new ACGS year is off to a good start. The Joyce Shannon Bridges Seminar was very informative. That lady really knows Mississippi research and is truly interested in helping you in that area. I hope we can have her back again.

Blanche is gearing up with the cemetery work again. We can always use volunteers to help with that.

We have other projects that are just beginning, some that are progressing, some finishing up and some that are just a twinkle in my eye. My letter in the next quarterly will be solely devoted to one of our new publications so be watching for that.

Come to the meetings if you can. We'd love to have you.

Mary Spainhour

A Tribute to Dr. W. H. Lindsey

Whereas:

On November 10th, 1929, at noon, while family, friends and neighbors awaited the will of God with cold dread in their hearts and with sorrow surging up in their very souls, our class member, brother and friend, Dr. W. H. Lindsey, put on the dreamy and beautiful cloak of immortality and again death was swallowed up in victory as he passed through the gate of life to rest in peace and sing with angels peans of peace and glory in the presence of God.

Dr. W. H. Lindsey was born, the son of Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Lindsey, in Starkville, Mississippi, in 1842. At the age of three years, his parents moved with the westward march of American civilization to Jacksonville, Texas, and the young son was reared by the tender hand of a devoted mother and the brave heart and resourceful mind of a strong and stalwart frontier father in the growing west. He grew with the west, brave and honorable in mind and heart, capable of rising to any emergency and determined to overcome the almost insurmountable environment of his time. He made an unusual success of it.

When his youth was just ready to turn the pathway into the power of manhood, the Civil War, which had smoldered and smoked during his teens, the great issues of the day in conversation and politics, burst forth as a volcano in all its fury and our young man was swept along with the others into the vortex of horrible fratricidal war. He enlisted in Company D, Seventh Texas Infantry, Green's Brigade, to serve during the entire period of the war except for one brief furlough when he was wounded in a battle in Louisiana and sent home to recuperate. After the war, he joined the Texas Rangers and helped to maintain peace in the war of reconstruction which was more terrible than the Civil War itself. He also, after quitting the Ranger service, worked as a cowboy for two years in the cattle industry between Mexico and our country when cattle were driven from Mexico to the market in the United States.

In 1869, he came to Hamburg, farmed one year, move to Oak Grove, Louisiana, farmed there for a time, moved back to Ashley County and farmed and studied medicine in the Pine Hill neighborhood. As he delved into the medical profession, he saw the necessity for college education in order to make this life a success. He therefore went to the Alabama Medical College, Mobile, Alabama, where he graduated second in his class in the year of 1877 and at the age of thirty-five went into the practice here in Hamburg. He practiced all over Ashley County for many years, during fifteen years of which time he was a partner of our beloved citizen, Dr. W. S. Norman.

Devotion to public welfare, at a time when political office was not always considered a public trust, drew Dr. Lindsey into politics in 1893 when he was elected to represent our county in the legislature. He served in that capacity again in 1924. He was elected sheriff in 1894 and again in 1904. He served as a member of the County Pension Board, having been appointed by Y.W. Etheridge, and having resigned since January 1st of this year. There was never blot or blemish on the public life of our friend. His devotion to his friends and to the general welfare and development of his county and state shone through his entire public service.

His Masonic career was a long and honorable one. He was unusually well versed in its lore, history and literature. He was a member of Prairie Lodge No. 165 for many years; served it in many capacities; as its worshipful master for a number of years. He also had the Masonic distinction of being appointed District Deputy Grand Master.

His devotion to the lost cause of the South continued with him throughout his life. He was steeped in it in his youth before the war, fought the good fight with Lee, Jackson, Stewart and others, and when the time in his life came for him to live in the past, his mind went back to the existing times of the war, its hardships and ordeals of reconstruction. He was loyal and true and loved the United Confederate Veterans. He attended many of its reunions and in 1921 was appointed by General L. A. Fitzpatrick, Commander, Arkansas Division, U.C.V., as a Lieutenant-Colonel in that organization and Surgeon on the staff of General Fitzpatrick. He served Camp James Norris, the local camp, U.C.V., for eleven years, only resigning last year.

But with all of his service, both to individuals and to the public, with all of his love for mankind, with all his devotion to his lodge, his greatest love and his highest service went to his church and to his God. He was the oldest member, both in years and in membership, of the Hamburg Baptist Church. He had laid his trust in Him who never fails us in his youth. He joined the Hamburg church soon after moving here and served it faithfully and devotedly throughout a long life. He had been a deacon so long in the church that no one seems to know when his service began. He was the teacher of the Men's Bible Class until the organization of the Colonel E. L. Compere Bible Class when he joined heartily in its work and was faithful, loyal and true to it during the remainder of his life.

Dr. Lindsey was a Bible student. He had read the Bible through many times. He read it not for the distinction of having read it, but for his love of its great truths.

The surviving members of Dr. Lindsey's family are his widow, who lives among us, and four children. They are Mrs. A. Z. McDougal of Staton, Texas; Mrs. Ida Brunton of Diball, Texas; W. S. Lindsey of Nacogdoches, Texas; and Russ Lindsey of Bastrop, Louisiana, and children of Mrs. Hunter Harvill. We grieve with them for their great loss of husband and father. We pray that the God who now makes him happy and free may guard, protect and save them to meet him at the great throne of grace.

Therefore, Be it Resolved, That the lodge be declared to be in mourning for thirty days; That the altar be draped during said time; That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this meeting; That a copy be given to the local paper for publication and that a copy be given to the widow of our deceased brother.

Pine Grove Cumberland Presbyterian Church
(Later known as Pine Flat and Florence Church)
Desha County, Arkansas

Dear Reader:

The original Pine Grove Church ledger from which this transcription came is very frail, and I realized if it were constantly handled, it would soon be destroyed. I asked, and was given permission to transcribe the ledger. I would like to give some information to the reader regarding the original ledger. As many of you will already know, 19th century handwriting is sometimes difficult to read, and the ledger was no exception. Many times a name would be spelled three different ways on one page. Capital letters I and J are often indistinguishable. Capital letters L and S are very similar. If you see surnames or place names misspelled, it is because I have duplicated the original exactly. The only changes I made to this transcription were to add commas and periods where absolutely needed. If I thought the meaning was clear enough, I refrained from editing.

When I first saw the ledger for Pine Grove Cumberland Presbyterian Church (later known as Pine Flat and later still as Florence Church), I was amazed at the amount of genealogical information it contained. Many times persons entering the church membership have their former church, county, and state listed. When members transfer to another church from Florence Church, the new church name is often given. There is a section for marriages, deaths, and infant baptisms. I have provided an index at the end of the book. Many of the persons listed in this book are found in the Drew County, Arkansas Cemetery Records, 2nd Edition, and I believe many others will be found in the cemeteries of Desha and Lincoln County. When the church was first organized, it was located in Desha County, Arkansas, in that part of that later became a part of Drew County. The church was located south of the intersection of County Roads 138 and 293, on the west side of Hwy 138. Only the cemetery remains today and is known as Old Florence Cemetery. I wish you much success in your search for your ancestors.

Huaband: Robert Hobbs

Wife: Mary Hobbs

Nothing more is known of the wife of Robert Hobbs at this writing, 1/25/95.

Child 1 Mary Hobbs

Mary Hobbs Harvill received an inheritance from her father, Robert Hobbs, who died in Greene Co, GA, in 1845. This is a matter of record in three states in probate records: GA, MS and AR. Mary inherited $1240, which was the price of two slaves: hampton, about 19, and John, about 17, sold by court order to divide the estate. There are several deeds in Dallas County for William and Mary, including land and slaves, until William's death in 1852. In 1860, Mary appears in the household of John F. and Mary Tabor Harvill, still in Dallas County, along with two children, Candis and William Harvill, ages 5 and 7. These may be grandchildren whose maothor had died. Candis is still with the family in 1870 in Ashley County, AR. Mary is listed on the mortality schedule in 1880, having died of consumption in September, in the home of John F and Mary in Mill Creek. These records lead me to believe that Mary was, indeed mother of John F.
1850, 1860, 1870 censuses, Dallas County, AR Deed Books A-C, 1880 Mortality Schedule, probate records in states noted. (Marshall Co, MS)

More Information:

Husband: William Harvill

William Harvill died intestate; James T. and John F. Harvill posted bond and served as administrator for his estate, which was turned over to his widow, Mary Hobbs Harvill, in April 1853. According to his son, Benjamin Franklin Harvill, William participated in the Creek and Seminole Wars, and was a native of Georgia. He moved to Dallas County, Ark. in 1848, after having lived in Alabama for several years. He bought 300 acres in Dallas County, and on this land he died in 1852. (from Goodspeed's book). Family information comes from the 1850 Dallas County census and courthouse records of Dallas County, where we visited personally in August, 1994.

Wife: Mary Hobbs

Mary Hobbs Harvill received an inheritance from her father, Robert Hobbs, who died in Greene Co., GA in 1846. This is a matter of record in three states in probate records; GA, MS and AR. Mary inherited $1240, which was the price of two slaves: Hampton, about 19, and John, about 17, sold by court order to divide the estate. There are several deeds in Dallas County for William and Mary, including land and slaves, until William's death in 1852. In 1860, Mary appears in the household of John F. and Mary Tabor Harvill, still in Dallas County, along with two children, Candis and William Newell, ages 5 and 7. These may be grandchildren whose mother had died. Candis is still with the family in 1870 in Ashley County, AR. Mary is listed on the mortality schedule in 1880, having died of consumption in September, in the home of John F. and Mary in Mill Creek. These records lead me to believe that Mary was, indeed, mother of John F.
 ...1850, 1860, 1870 census, Dallas Co Deed Books A-C, 1880 mortality schedule, probate records in states noted. (Marshall Co., MS)

Child 1 – James T. Harvill

James T. Harvill was administrator of William Harvill's will, and lived next door to William in 1850. He is evidently the brother referred to by B.F. in the Goodspeed article, who was said to have owned over 5,000 acres, but lost it all after the Civil War. In 1850, he lived with wife, Nancy, age 27, b. AL; Wm. B., age 7, b. MS; James T., age 4, b. MS; Jasper N., age 1, b. AR. His will is a record of Prairie Co., AR, Will Book B, p. 157.

Child 2 – Nancy Harvill

Nothing is known of Nancy at this writing, 11/1/94.

Child 3 – John F. Harvill

From Ashley County Eagle, May 7, 1903: Mr. J. F. Harvill, of the Milo neighborhood, one of the oldest and best citizens of Ashley County, died on Thursday morning last, within a few days of his 80th birthday. No burial place was given. John F. Harville appears on tax rolls of Ashley County, AR, beginning in 1868, but does not appear on census until 1870. The 1850 Dallas County, AR, census lists a John F. Harville, age 26, as a boarder in another home. I believe him to be the son of William and Mary Hobbs, listed on the same census. John posted bond for William's estate, after he died intestate; but as of August, 1994, I have not found written records to prove kinship. Mary Harville, age 82, born Georgia, died in the home of J. F. in Sept. of 1879 of consumption. I believe this is the same Mary, John's mother. This Mary received part of her father's estate in 1846, recorded in Dallas County, AR; Marshall Co., MS; and Greene Co., GA probate courts. I believe that John took his mother back to Marshall County marriages on that date. William Harville died on 13 Sept 1852, in Dallas Co., AR.

October 1994... The 1860 Dallas County census lists John F. and Mary Harville with their children, John C, age 6; Mary E., age 3; Mary Harville, age 61; born GA; Franklin Harville, age 23, b. AL; George Harville, age 18, b. AL; William Newell, age 7, b. AR; Candis Newell, age 5, b. AR; and James Key, age 25, b. GA. I believe this is strong enough circumstantial evidence to say that John F. was the son of William and Mary Harvill, and brother of Franklin and George, especially since Mary died in his home in Mill Creek in 1879, and he is remembered in the will of Franklin, along with brother R. C. The Newell children may be grandchildren of the older Mary, whose parents have died. This was common in these years. Candis is still with the family in 1870.

...1850, 1860, 1870, 1880. 1900 censuses; mortality schedule Ashley County., 1880; Dallas County Will Book A, pp 259-260, Jan 4, 1853.

Child 4 – William H. Harvill

Nothing more is known of William H. at this writing 11/1/94.

Child 5 – Robert Curtis Harvill

R. C. Harvill is first known on a census in Marshall County, MS, in 1850, with wife, Harriet (md. 8/7/1845), daughters, Mary Ann and Margaret E. In 1860, he is in Ashley County, AR, Mill Creek, with wife, Mary Holloway (md. 9/18/1858), children Margaret, 22; Mattie, 11; William, 7; Mary 74, and Candis, 14. This would appear to be the same Mary and Candis who are shown living with John F. Harvill, also. In 1880, R. C. is 55; wife, Florence King, 27, (md. 5/22/1876); sons, Edward (W.E.), 17; Curtis, Jr. 1; and stepdaughter, Addie King, 6. R. C. widow, Florence, received a Confederate pension after he died in 1898. Records show that he fought with Capt. Burk's Co., Col. Wright's Arkansas Infantry. R. C.'s son, William Edward, is later named as administrator of B.F.'s widow's will, according to B.F.'s instructions. He is listed as a nephew of B. F.

...1850, 1860, 1870, 1880 censuses; book of Ark. Conf. Pensions; Ashley County Marriage record books AA and B.

Child 6 – Jane Harvill

Nothing more is know of Jane at this writing 11/1/94.

Child 7 – Benjamin Franklin Harvill

Benjamin Franklin was featured in the Goodspeed book on well-know Arkansas men in the 1890's. He states the facts about his birth and his father. (see article). He married Fannie White of South Carolina, in the spring of 1858; she died three months later. In 1861, he joined the Confederate army and was in many major battles, captured at Jonesboro, and sent to Louisville, KY, as a prisoner. He was discharge there, lived just above Memphis for about a year, then returned to Ashley County, AR, where he married Mary Thacker of Virginia. He bought 600 acres of land and became a successful farmer. He says he is a Democrat, and a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church South. He left his estate to his widow, and at her death, it was to go to his sisters who are named, and R. C. and J. F. Harville, no relationship stated. The estate is to be administered by his nephew, William Edward (son of R. C.) From this I am led to believe that John F. was also a bother of B. F., especially since B. F. lived in John F.'s home in Dallas County after his father's death in 1952. B. F. was a very prominent citizen of Ashley County, according to many articles in the old Ashley County paper. He had no children.

...1850 census, 1880 census, Goodspeed's book, Ashley Co. Abstract Co. Will Book A; Ashley County Eagle

Child 8 – George A. Harvill

George is listed as 12 years old on the 1850 census, and 18 on the 1860. ?? Nothing more is known of George A. at this writing 11/4/94.

Clyde Family

One of the first Clydes was Vilelmus Clyde who witnessed an instrument of sasine to lands of Maluldislee in 1493 (Pollock, I, p. 206), William Clyde was admitted burgers of Dundee 1580 (Wedd., p. 172) and Helen Clyde is recorded in the town of Belstaine, parish of Carluke, 1665 (Lanark C. R.) Scottish Names

The Clydes come from the Strath of Clyde, just south of Glasgow, they have their own tartan colors but unknown at this time what they are. Lived on or near the Clyde River?

William W. Clyde

born 1808 NY

the Father of Imogene Clyde

William W. Clyde moved from New York sometime between 1808 and 1837 to marry a woman from So. Carolina. He went then to Alabama where his first child, Imogene was born in 1837. He travels next to Mississippi by 1840 and then to Louisiana where he becomes a planter but has no slaves. By 1850 he has moved his family of six children to Arkansas where his occupation is Artist.

Wife: Katherine (Clyde) born 1817 S.C. (1850 LA census)
C. T. (b. 1814) (S.C.) 1860 census Ark could this be the same person

The following W. W. Clyde is possibly his father, the dates don't work for mine.

From the Index of Pensions Files, War of 1812, Vol I A-F, Nat Pub. Co. Wynesboro, Tenn, 1989, Pension #SC - 2188: Katherine Tibbetts m., 3 July 1815, (Oneda Co.) Schuyler NY, serves Edward Cary's NY Mil. Lives in Jefferson City, PA and Catturagus City, NY.

Queries

White/Harper/Tubbs

I am searching for information on the Mary White listed in the 1870 Census, Ashley County, Egypt township, with two children, George, age 11, and Nancy, age 9. Who was Mary's husband, the father of these children? In the 1880 Census she lived near Elizabeth Harper, family 160, with Samuel T. Tubbs and wife, Nancy, family 161, between them, then Mary White, family 162. There is a James L. Harper listed as brother. Was Mary's maiden name Harper? Can anyone help on this?

Mrs. Arvis E. Logan, 1509 W. Admiral Blvd, Tulsa, OK 74127-8517

McGinty/Youngblood/Vines/Stevenson

Does anyone have a list of persons buried about four miles from Crossett in the old McGinty Cemetery? I heard it had been destroyed. This cemetery is in Arkansas. There is a McGinty Cemetery in Jones, LA and I know where it is. My aunt, Martha Jane Youngblood, born ca 1841, GA, died ca 1874, AR. She married 1. D.W. Vines, 1857, Union County, AR; 2. Wm. J. Stevenson between 1860 and 1870; 3. Wm. McGinty, before 1870. She is listed in the 1870 census, Egypt township, p. 61, family 82:

McGinty,	Wm.	58	GA
"	Jane	27	AR (GA instead)
"	Joseph	16	GA
Reed,	Marthy	12	GA
"	Asa	10	GA
Stevenson,	Sarah	4	LA

Can anyone give me any information on Jane's other children, Vines, Stevenson, or McGinty? Or any information on the old cemetery?

Mrs. Arvis E. Logan, 1509 W. Admiral Blvd., Tulsa, OK 74127-8517

Clyde/Hollaway

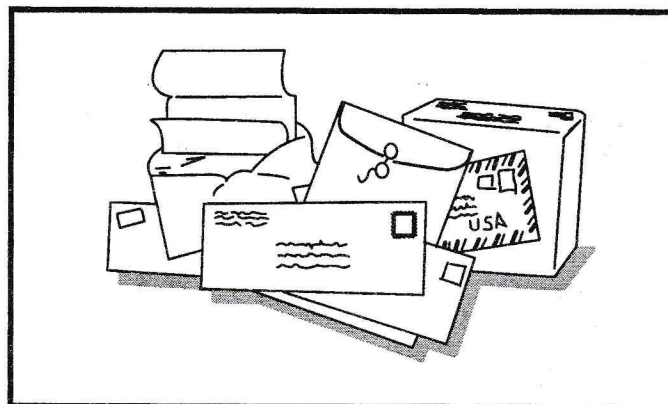

I am interested in information on W. W. Clyde and his family. (See article on W. W. Clyde family, page 27-28.) His daughter, Imogene, married my grandfather James L. Hollaway. Her brothers, Joseph and James Clyde, edited or established a newspaper in Longview dist. of Ashley County in 1870. Could this be the same newspaper to which you referred, The Ashley County Eagle? W. W. Clyde declared himself to be an artist in the 1870 Ashley County, Arkansas census.

Sherrer/George

I am looking for information on the Sherrer Family. They came to Crossett, AR, as early as 1806 (sic). My great-great-grandfather's name was Elijah Alexander Sherrer, born 20 September 1815. He married Josephine Ann George, and her mother's name was Mattie Elizabeth Gerry. The couple's first child was Martha Jane, born 23 Jan 1840. Elijah also had a daughter (my great-grand-mother) named Velichia Dorthula, born 16 May 1861). The family probably moved soon after this, as they were in Texas by 1873.

Sarah A. Trammell, Rt. 2 Box 34, Holdenville, OK 74848.

Hanson

I am the great-grand-daughter of Swedish immigrants who moved to Ashley County between 1890 and 1900. They owned and operated two hotels in Hamburg until the fall of 1927. Their names were Peter and Johanna Hanson. My grandfather, Carl James Hanson was born in Hamburg in 1900, though he claimed 1898 to enlist in the army.

My great-grandmother is listed in Kin Collecting Vol. III, #1 (Summer 1988), in a quote from the Ashley County Eagle:

Feb. 2, 1893

"Mrs. Hanson the Swede woman residing on the east side of town, now has a sewing machine and will be glad to get any kind of sewing to do."

I am looking for other information on their hotels, the flood, or their family. I am interested in finding out if there is a marriage record for their daughter Wilhelmina Albertina Tekla Hanson around 1910. I am also interested in any death or burial records for children who may have immigrated with Peter and Johanna and died before the 1910 census. The only census records I have been able to find for this family are the 1910 and 1920 records.

Becky Hanson Whitehead, 6619 Cloverbend, San Antonio, TX 78238

Earle

My grandfather, Carl Wilber Earle, was born in Ashley County, AR, 12 July 1891. His father was Henry Wilber Earle and his mother was Laura Shipley Earle. Their family was from Richland Parish, LA. Does anyone have a record of birth for them? Any help in this matter or any information on Earle's in Ashley County would be appreciated.

Patricia R. Brice, 20115 Kindle Oaks, Katy, TX 77450

King/Aiken

I would like information on: Samuel M. and Lettice King. Daughter, Catherine L. King and husband, Curtis Aiken, moved to Ashley County, AR between 1850 and 1860, from Desoto County, MS. Lived and farmed around Crossett, AR. Their son's Samuel T. and John D. Aiken.
